STAT

SUBJECT : Meeting of ORPA Analysts with Staff Members of the Congressional Research Service

1. As I previously discussed with you, three analysts from the International Issues Division of ORPA visited the Congressional Research Service (CRS) on 27 May.

2. Mr. William Whitsun, Director of the Foreign Affairs and Defense Division of CRS had arranged the meeting for an exchange of views on new issues in international relations. The meeting was non-substantive, and touched instead on such topics as planning research on new topics and the trade-offs between research and current analysis.
